

ONE FOCUS INTERNATIONAL

TRAINING GROUP (OFITG)

OFITG is a Joint Venture between Unitech Consulting, LLC d.b.a. Chameleon Integrated Services and One Focus International, Inc.

One Focus International Training Group (OFITG) is certified by the Department of Veteran Affairs as a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) that provides the Federal Government and Joint Special Operations worldwide communities with national security services, information technologies, and program management.

How We Deliver

Led by a management team with over 100 years of acquired leadership experience and past performance in Joint Special Operations and the U.S. military, we apply our knowledge, expertise, and skills to ensure OFITG personnel can rapidly deployable to any location in the world to exercise our unique skills in support of our clients' projects.

Subject Matter Expertise

OFITG's senior leadership team has extensive experience conducting real-world operations and missions in all six DoD geographic Combatant Commands.

Quality Assurance

OFITG leverages an 11-year performance record in successfully managing Federal and DoD Programs as a small business prime contractor with a DCAA compliant accounting system.

Executive Sponsorship

OFITG Management provides accountability throughout all projects, meeting weekly with the JV leadership to reduce risk and provide OFITG customers an operational model for success.

The acceleration of technology, advanced global communication systems, and information and resources easily accessible on the internet pose a significant and unique challenge to governments, militaries, law enforcement, and industry.

In most cases, organizations cannot control these threat conditions, but they can prepare properly to mitigate their risk and counter their impact.

OFITG offers our clients security-related training venues, information technology solutions, operational support, logistics and medical planning, and cross-functional consulting services.
